

Faculty of Health Sciences

Bioethics Day

17 July 2012

Programme

09h30 – 09h35

Welcome

Session 1: Research Ethics (Chair: Dr Theresa Burgess, Physiotherapy, UCT)

09h35 - 10h05

Dr Lesley Henley (Paediatrics, UCT)

Stored human biological material: where's the harm?

10h05-10h30

Professor Anne Pope (Private Law, UCT)

Who owns human biological samples?

10h30 to 11h00

Discussion

11h00 to 11h30

Tea

Session 2: Professionalism (Chair: Jessica du Toit, Philosophy, UCT)

11h30 to 12h00:

Maya Jaffer, (6th Year MBChB student, UCT)

Not the casual observer: What happens when medical students encounter unethical conduct during clinical rotations?

12h00 to 12h30

Discussion

12h30 to 13h15

Lunch

Session 3: Circumcision (Chair: Dr Paul Roux, Paediatrics, UCT)

13h15 to 13h45

Professor David Benatar (Philosophy, UCT)

Circumcision, public health and children's rights.

13h45 to 14h15

Discussion

14h15 – 14h30

Closing